

'Twas the night before Christmas,
And all through the farm
Not a joint there was creaking.
They were all safe from harm.

The horses were snuggled
All comfy in their stalls,
Dreaming of blue ribbons
Covering their walls.

The faithful farm dog,
Who kept up for the ride,
Lay sleeping pain-free,
Right at its master's side.

And as for the rider,
Though an ache in his muscles,
Not a joint in his body
Had slowed down his hustle!

And what was the cause
Of all this good cheer?
Why, it's the Total Joint Health
They enjoyed this past year!
